 Tim in Ky But, there isn't a flat kilometer to be found. It's either going up or going down the whole way. 05-24 15:41

 Tim in Ky Short stage, all climbing, GC up for grabs... I don't think a break stands a snowballs chance. Start time is 13:10 CET (7:10 EDT). Should be like video from the start. Should be. 05-24 15:50

 Kim Crosby My video recently has had internet troubles..... (I didn't heed the advice to buy the stream like I should have, and instead relied on other forms to watch.....) 05-24 21:43

 Rob Hey Kim, how was your first century? 05-25 04:19

 BusterSci So if Tuesday was the Queen stage is this the Queen Mother stage? Or maybe the Royal Mistress stage? 05-25 06:35

 Tim in Ky I was thinking Princess stage. 05-25 06:36

 Tim in Ky Interestingly, the Giro website calls both Tuesday and today the Queen stage. 05-25 06:37

 Tim in Ky The peloton will probably call it a mother..... 05-25 06:38

 Rob So who do we think will be in pink at the end? 05-25 06:39

 BusterSci I think Tom will maintain it today. 05-25 06:41

 BusterSci Did you see the analysis that he actually makes the final descent Tuesday faster than Nibali? 05-25 06:42

 Tim in Ky Where is that, Buster? 05-25 06:43

 Tim in Ky I'm sure Bahrain and Movi will try to wear Sunweb out right from the start. 05-25 06:44

 BusterSci Unusually for me, I don't recall. I linked to it through Twitter and it was on a different computer than I'm using now, so I can't check the history. I'll poke around a bit and see if I can locate it. 05-25 06:44

 Tim in Ky It will be interesting to see if UAE tries to maintain Polanc's top ten position. 05-25 06:46

I'm also currently copying a TB of data to an external drive - my computer hates me. I just purchased a new 2TB MacBook Pro, as I've filled up my 1TB MacBook Pro.  Joanna in New York I will look into that, Buster. I am avoiding any type of Cloud 05-25 07:43 storage, as I've encountered weird issues with it at times.

 BusterSci Well, the home server advantage is that you own the cloud. I'm really happy 05-25 07:45 with mine. It serves my media, it runs my surveillance cameras, it is my time machine backup and it's a RAID drive, so it has itself backed up. I can access anything from my computers or my iOS devices.

 Joanna in New York In complete NRRBBB - the death toll on Everest has increased to 10 after 4 climbers were found dead in their tent at Base 4. Sherpas were ascending to bring down the body of another climber, when they discovered the bodies in the tent. Suspect carbon monoxide poisoning. Others have been lost to altitude sickness, and one climber fell and has not been found. On top of that, the Hilary Step has collapsed. 05-25 08:33

 BusterSci Bahrain appears to be trying to put others under pressure, as they drive the peloton. 05-25 08:37

 BusterSci Movistar sends a couple up as well. 05-25 08:38

 BusterSci Dumoulin seems comfortable but is not behind his teammates anymore. 05-25 08:38

 Katie Just awful. I've got a friend who is supposedly hiking to base camp now with her best friend from childhood, the great-great granddaughter of George Everest. Haven't heard whether they continued with the plan after all of this. 05-25 08:38

 BusterSci Orica, not Movistar, to the fore. 05-25 08:39

 BusterSci Roskopf and Tejay lead the break for BMC 05-25 08:41

 BusterSci 84.4km and 2:06 05-25 08:42

 Joanna in New York I know I've mentioned it before, but I would love to go to Base Camp, but absolutely no higher. I would never make it over the ladders at the Khumbu Ice Fall. Many of the deaths this year have occurred after the climbers have made the summit. Very sad, and even more dangerous with the increased population trying and the change in terrain. 05-25 08:42
